

I feel that the broadcast flag would make would prevent me from exercising fair use of intellectual property sent via television. The broadcast flag initiative is something being pushed by the movie and television industries and will harm consumers and prevent them from exercising their rights to fair use. In addition due to the DMCA it would be illegal for a consumer to circumvent the "broadcast flag" in order to exercise their rights to fair use and legally make use of the content marked as "broadcast only".